Amsterdam Make-over 2040

Amsterdam is an old lady, but she is set on having a metropolitan make over. After all, cities have to keep on developing to survive on the global stage. But the question is how they should grow in an ecological and economically sustainable manner?

With urban theorist Richard Florida (Toronto), urban sociologist Saskia Sassen (New York/London), Amsterdam city planner Zef Hemel, researcher Merijn Oudenampsen and professor in landscape architecture Adriaan Geuze.
