

HAPPY ISLES AND WATERFRONT TORONTO IN NEW NAI EXHIBITION

25-02-2010

The international travelling exhibition 'Architecture of Consequence' highlights a changing selection of the same urban designers included in the accompanying book. After Sao Paulo and Moscow, the exhibition is currently on show in the NAI in Rotterdam and features two West 8 projects: Happy Isles and Waterfront Toronto.

The designs that are presented are the fruits of an ambition to find sustainable designs for the future. The theme is expanded by exhibiting the selected designs in different scales.

Other contributions by: 2by4-architects, De Zwarte Hond, Doepel Strijkers Architecten, MVRDV, Studio Marco Vermeulen, CONCEPT0031, Anne Holtrop, Next Architects, seARCH, 2012 Architecten, Atelier Kempe Thill, biq stadsontwerp, MUST Urbanism, OMA / AMO, ONIX, Powerhouse Company, Rietveld Landscape, Stealth.ultd, Van Bergen Kolpa Architecten, Venhoeven CS, ZUS

For more information about 'Architecture of Consequence' visit www.architectureofconsequence.nl.