

PLAYA DE PALMA: PROJECT OF THE YEAR

30-09-2008

Each year the Spanish magazine Ejecutivos awards international organizations for their outstanding and innovative projects. This year the design of West 8 for Playa de Palma was awarded Project of the Year 2007.

According to the jury the project takes into account the interests of all parties involved and is set out to create a first class turistic destination as well as contributing to the cultural heritage.
